

We're looking for an experienced Senior Client Architect to join our Primary Care Solutions Product Development Team working with a group of architects, technical leads and product teams. You'll help define the overall architecture of our solutions and be involved in implementing configuration management infrastructure, through to giving workshops and design recommendations to a technical team.

UK based remote working OR hybrid home/office (London or Dundee)

FULL DETAILS TO FOLLOW SHORTLY